Cantor Ilan Davidson, SCIC President

Cantor Ilan Davidson has been pleasing audiences with his singing since before he could read. At age five, he began singing with his Cantor, Philip Moddel. At ten, he made his Operatic debut with the Fullerton Civic Light Opera’s production of Bizet’s Carmen, as a street urchin. Since then, he has performed roles in and scenes from Die Zauberflöte, L’Elisir D’amore, Les Pêcheurs du Perles, and Manon, to name a few.

In addition to his operatic experience, Cantor Davidson has extensive background in performing and directing theatre. He has performed such roles as Benny Southstreet in Guys and Dolls and Tony in Westside Story, and has produced many one-man musical theatre reviews. Moreover, Cantor I also been the musical and artistic director for many children’s theatre productions.

After making the choice in 1991 to pursue a career in Jewish Education, Youth Work, and the Cantorate, Cantor Davidson, in 1995, joined the Temple Beth El family in San Pedro where he has brought many new programs and much enthusiasm to all that he does.

As Cantor of Temple Beth El, Ilan Davidson has developed many interfaith programs, including Psalmfest: An Interfaith Celebration in Song, the Faith Club, an opportunity for discussion; programs in Tolerance and Understanding for students in public and parochial schools; and lessons in Comparative Judaism and Comparative Religion. Because of his commitment, Cantor Davidson has been honored as a recipient of many interfaith and community involvement awards.

In 2007, Cantor Davidson created a new foundation, KindredSPIRITS, producing Temple Beth El’s annual world humanitarian aid concert. KindredSPIRITS premiered on June 5, 2008 at Walt Disney Concert Hall. Whether performing Hazzanut, Pop, Opera, Musical Theatre, or Folk music, Cantor Davidson truly shares his soul and genuine love of humanity with every single note.

When asked about his finest accomplishment, Cantor Davidson invariably responds, After all the great concerts, services, and roles, my finest role in life is that of husband to my beautiful wife, Jodi, and daddy to my gorgeous daughters, Jordan and Zoe.

Mission of the SCIC

It is the Mission of the South Coast Interfaith Council to promote mutual understanding, respect, appreciation and cooperation among people of faith in the Greater South Bay-Harbor-Long Beach-West Orange County area by extending hospitality, fostering community, offering educational opportunities, providing moral leadership, sharing in service and working for justice.

If you would like to receive the South Coast Interfaith Council’s newsletter, please call the SCIC office at 562-983-1665.
Dear Friends,

Rumi, a thirteenth-century Persian mystic, told of a man who walked past a beggar and asked the Divine, “Why do you not do something for these people?” The Divine replied, “I did do something. I made you.” When Rumi wrote these words, he was addressing our ability to choose and to know that we can make a difference in the world that we live in.

You have made a significant difference in the community that we live in by your sincere support of the South Coast Interfaith Council (SCIC). With your kindness we have been able to continue our important programs such as Feeding the Homeless, Interfaith Build Days with Habitat for Humanity, Interfaith Unity Bike-a-thon, Festival of Music Benefit Concert, Interfaith Cafés, Interfaith Unity Dinner, 911 Interfaith Remembrance: Looking Ahead Together with Hope, Interfaith Thanksgiving Service, MLK Interfaith Remembrance, Centro Shalom, Social Concerns Committee, Harbor Area Farmers Markets, SCIC Speakers Bureau, CROP Hunger Walks, and Good Samaritan Counseling Center.

The outcomes of these programs have enabled thousands of diverse individuals in our local community to come together and express shared values and illustrate a profound sense of respect, love and compassion for one another. Understanding the vital role that the SCIC plays, the Long Beach NAACP acknowledged us with the recognition “Trailblazer Award in Interfaith Relations” in 2011. In addition, I was honored to be asked to visit the White House with the opportunity to share the work that SCIC is doing to establish a peaceful and united interfaith and intercultural community here in Southern California. Lastly, just this past December the SCIC was asked to participate in an on-going PSA on religious inclusiveness being aired nationally on TV on the USA Network!

We are incredibly excited about our new projects for 2012: Religion 101 Seminars, Divine Dining: A Taste of Different Religions & Cultures, Cooking with the Cantor, and Interfaith Youth Camp! We are confident that these projects will be a tremendous success! We are also extremely honored about being invited to attend “A Fetzer Global Gathering: The Pilgrimage of Love and Forgiveness” in Assisi, Italy in September where SCIC will be sharing our work with religious leaders around the world!

I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to President Rev. Sandy Olewine and the SCIC Board of Directors for their commitment to the SCIC; Patty Lance, my SCIC partner, in ensuring the success of this council; Melody O’Keefe for her brilliance in Accounting; and the rest of the SCIC staff for their dedication to the organization. A very special note of appreciation goes to my family and especially to my husband, Arfan, who is my rock and a continuous source of inspiration. Most importantly, I wish to thank YOU for your belief in what the SCIC stands for! This Council ceases to exist without YOU; your involvement and generosity are truly appreciated! I look forward to the rest of 2012 with great enthusiasm as we continue this journey together to establish peace, love, compassion and respect among communities of diverse faiths and cultures here in Southern California!

Sincerely,
Milia Islam-Majeeed

SCIC COMMITTEES

Social Concerns Committee (SCC)
Chair: Jane Affonso
Meetings: 2nd Mondays, 7 p.m., St. Cyprian Catholic Church Long Beach

In 2011, the SCC focused on Criminal Justice: Educating and Advocating on Issues of Juvenile Sentencing, 3 Strikes, the Death Penalty and Solitary Confinement. The committee continued its support for awareness of Human Trafficking in Our Neighborhoods, and Advocacy for Fair Treatment of Immigrants, especially youth and families. Moreover, SCC continued its faith community partnership with the Department of Children and Family Services of Los Angeles County (DCFS). More specifically, the SCC encouraged seven SCIC volunteers to be trained to serve as Education Advocates for those in the Kinship program and have also been involved with a facility to provide housing for those "aged out" of the foster care program with funds from AB 12. The SCC continued its support of Housing Long Beach in its efforts to include community benefits in the Downtown Community Plan. SCC also continued its work with Clergy & Laity United for Economic Justice (CLUE), the Long Beach Immigrant Rights Coalition (LBIRC), the Long Beach Area Coalition for the Homeless, Housing Long Beach, the Interfaith Community Organization of Greater Long Beach (ICO), Hunger Action LA, and Bread for the World, addressing labor rights, immigration, homelessness and hunger. In addition, the SCC actively supported the Clean and Safe Ports Coalition, the Communities for a Better Environment, Interfaith Power and Light, the Environmental Priorities Network (especially its work addressing concerns with desalination), Transition South Bay, and the LA Nuclear Disarmament Coalition.

The SCC’s 2012 priorities include: Criminal justice • Human Trafficking • At-Risk Children and Youth • Hunger and Homelessness • Sub-Saharan Africa • Creation Care • Becoming Peacemakers.

To be added to SCC’s email list, contact: jgaffonso@gmail.com or 310 995-4943.

Interfaith Relations Committee (IRC)
Co-Chairs: Khalil Momand, Dr. Rini Ghosh, & Dr. Anthony Manousos
Meetings: 1st Tuesdays, 7 p.m., Lomita/Torrance

In response to a great demand for more cafés, the Interfaith Relations Committee (IRC), in 2011, held four Interfaith Cafés! The first of these was on May 15, at Rolling Hills Methodist Church and was co-hosted by the Vedanta International Cultural Center. The second café was held on June 26, at the International Institute of Tolerance in Torrance and was co-hosted by the Baha’i Communities of Long Beach and Manhattan Beach, followed by the third of the summer Cafés on July 17, at the Redondo Beach Center for Spiritual Living, which was co-hosted by Temple Israel of Long Beach. The final Interfaith Café of 2011 was held on August 21, at St. Mary’s Catholic Church in Lomita and was co-hosted by the SGI Buddhist Community.

The SCIC Interfaith Cafés are small group discussions for laity, youth (9th-12th graders), and religious leaders about how faith both impacts people’s daily lives and allows them to relate to and appreciate those from other faith traditions. In 2011, participants of the Interfaith Cafés also had the opportunity to play WeBelieve2, a board game produced by Pastor Duane Moret.

Revenue Enhancement Committee (REC)
Chair: Milla Islam-Majeed
Meetings: 3rd Thursdays, 6:00 p.m.
SCIC Office, Long Beach

This committee is responsible to the Board of Directors for assuming the primary responsibility of raising funds to meet the budget of the South Coast Interfaith Council. In 2011, SCIC received a generous $5,000 gift, donated by Rev. Duane Moret, to continue the work of the Interfaith Council. In 2011, SCIC continued its Sponsorship Program for the SCIC website and its e-newsletter, as well as the SCIC Interfaith Bike-a-thon. Additional programs, that were added in 2011, were the SCIC Peace Gift Cards and the SCIC Interfaith Day, both of which were huge successes. The REC also worked on programs for 2012, which include Divine Dining: A Cultural & Spiritual Exchange of Food and Fellowship, Cooking with the Cantor and the Monthly Direct Debit Program to support SCIC. Moreover, with SCIC’s 60th Anniversary coming up in 2013, the REC will be spending much of the year planning a Grand Gala to celebrate this momentous milestone!

ALAMITOS BAY MARINA LB (1997) SUNDAYS, 9 a.m. - 2 p.m., Marina Dr. at Second St.

During the year 2011, the Harbor Area Farmers’ Markets (HAFM) grew from 5 markets to 6, with a market being open every day of the week except on Tuesday. During late 2010, it was brought to HAFM’s attention that the 25-year-old Monday South Gate Farmers’ Market was going to need a new market operator and a new manager, since Fannie Earl - the founding manager who had started the market as a “retirement project” at age 65 - was finally going to “really retire” at age 90! HAFM adopted that market in February.

The HAFM Advisory Board had a well-attended planning retreat in July, where the board refined its mission statement and delved into future plans. Unlike other nearby farmers’ markets, all of HAFMs take EBT Food Stamp Cards year-round, as well as Farmers’ Market Nutrition Program coupons during the summer and fall. The HAFM Board has also commissioned a successful special coupon program at the Friday market for disabled seniors who are 55 years or older.

Harbor Area Farmers’ Markets are bringing in $5 million in total sales each year and HAFM is confident it will continue its success in the years to come!

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. INTERFAITH CELEBRATION (1992)

In coordination with the Long Beach Religious Leaders Association, the Long Beach Ministers Alliance, the NAACP and other organizations, the SCIC held its 20th Annual MLK Interreligious and Multicultural Celebration honoring the legacy of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on January 16, at Gospel Memorial Church of God in Christ in Long Beach. Christian, Jewish, Hindu, Sikh, Muslim, Bahá’í, Buddhist and Native American faith traditions participated in this memorable celebration titled Justice for One: Justice for All.

Elder Clarence L. ‘Rob’ Robins of the Greater Open Door Church of God in Christ (COGIC) and Service Employees International Union (SEIU), Long Term Care Workers, delivered the keynote address. He spoke about the importance of living the principles illustrated in Dr. King’s life and continuing those practices today to ensure justice for those who need it most. The Gospel Memorial Church of God in Christ Choir and other Gospel singers provided music. The offering collected went to support educating the interfaith community about the plight of worker justice in Southern California today.

CENTRO SHALOM (1977)
Amelia Nieto, Director; Marc Coleman, Board Chair; 562-591-2214; centroshalom1@aol.com

2131 Long Beach Blvd, LB 90806; Hours: 8am - 4pm, M-F

Centro Shalom continues to offer a broad array of services to meet the varied demands of its clients—community advocacy, legal services, food & clothing, housing assistance, youth organizing, literacy/self esteem counseling programs, and family counseling – often seeing 500 people a week. There were many accomplishments in 2011, including the establishment of the Olivia Herrera Community Center as the cultural, educational and counseling component of Centro’s programming; closing a major budget gap by organizing a gala dinner which celebrated the California Dream Act; beginning an effective fund development plan; and increasing the quantity and quality of grant proposal development which led to the successful acquisition of several significant grants. The California Endowment has funded the creation of an Organizing Institute through its Building Healthy Communities project in Long Beach. The two-year grant of $298,000.00 to Centro will recruit, train and develop community organizers to assist and support the Endowment and advance the objectives of Building Healthy Communities. These funds will be used to operate the Institute for two years and create five organizer positions for graduates of the program. Centro serves a broad cross-section of the poor and underserved population in Long Beach and all of its programs are free of charge to anyone in need. Contributions are tax free, but more importantly, every dollar contributed is matched by four more in volunteer time and support.

GOOD SAMARITAN COUNSELING CENTER (GSCC) (1994),
Rev. William Scar, D.Min; Lyle Rapp, MFT; 310-514-3000; GoodSamCtr@aol.com; 1350 W. 25th St., San Pedro 90732

2011 was another year of special challenges and unusual clinical needs. The ongoing pressures of a troubled economy and social discord have taken their toll on family life and individual emotional and spiritual health. The two areas of greatest demand for the Good Samaritan Counseling Center (GSCC) services have been care for clinical depression and family violence and chaos. In addition, GSCC received increasing numbers of requests for grief counseling. In response, GSCCs senior staff added time for additional clinical hours by adding Margaret Medhus, MS, as a qualified clinical intern in Marriage and Family Therapy. GSCC has also resumed its collegial relationship with Ms. Luz Diaz, MA, whose primary focus is grief counseling for Hispanic families. In 2011, GSCC provided $67,625 in direct financial aid to those who, otherwise, were not financially able to afford counseling.

GSCC looks forward to reaching out more to the interfaith community with direct services, consultation, and a variety of educational programs such as Understanding Child Development and The Spiritual Roots of Emotional Pain, Marriages That Grow, and Women’s Spiritual Selves. Moreover, GSCC will continue to provide clinical assessments and case management in addition to its consultation and education activities with individual faith communities.
COAST INTERFAITH COUNCIL

The Long Beach Church Athletic Association played volleyball and softball with 19 congregations participating.

LONG BEACH RELIGIOUS LEADERS ASSOCIATION (LBRLA) (1991)
Diane Posson & Rev. Danny Bradfield, Co-Presidents, 562-983-1665

The LBRLA is a network of professional clergy, religious leaders and those in religious vocations who meet monthly for educational programs, lunch gathering, fellowship, support and dialogue. Among other events, the LBRLA co-sponsors the Annual Dr. MLK Interfaith Celebration.

CROP HUNGER WALKS (1975)

SCIC sponsors the Long Beach and Peninsula-Harbor CROP (Communities Responding to Overcome Poverty) Hunger Walks. Seventy-five percent of the funds raised by CROP Walks are sent to Church World Service to be used in the worldwide effort to ease and prevent hunger. The remaining 25% is given to local charities.

LONG BEACH: 353 walkers raised $25,898 with Dale Whitley as Chair
Proceeds went to: Centro Shalom, Catholic Charities, Christian Outreach in Action, St. Francis Center, We-Care and Su Casa Family Center.

PENINSULA-HARBOR: 247 walkers raised $30,741 with Jan Gardner & Jim Stanbery as Co-Chairs
Proceeds went to: FISH Emergency Food Center of Harbor Interfaith Services, San Pedro UMC Sunday Suppers, SHAWL House, Toberman Center and Shared Bread Redondo Beach.

INTERFAITH UNITY AWARDS DINNER (2004)
The 8th Annual Interfaith Unity Awards Dinner was held on November 13th at St. James Catholic School in Torrance. The SCIC honored individuals and organizations that have consistently demonstrated excellence in cultivating effective interfaith relations and unity. Awardees were Marguax Kohut and the CCEJ, Beverly Conover of the Redondo Beach Center for Spiritual Living, Shakeel Syeed and the Islamic Shura Council of Southern California and Dr. Rini Ghosh of the Vedanta Society. Father Gregory Boyle, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Homeboy Industries, was the keynote speaker. He spoke about the importance of practicing compassion so as to create a community where all are truly one; a community where its inhabitants are defined by the essence of kinship. More than 200 individuals from the greater interfaith community were in attendance at this annual event.

ENVIRONMENTAL PRIORITIES NETWORK (EPN) (2001)
Lillian Light, President; lklight@verizon.net

The Environmental Priorities Network takes action on one or more important environmental issues at every meeting. In the last year, members of EPN attended meetings on the desalination controversy in the first few months of 2011. Then on March 26th, several members staffed a booth at the Torrance Environmental Fair and encouraged action on environmental problems. March and April consisted of planning for the very successful Annual Solar Homes Tour, which took place on May 21st. Moreover, EPN staffed tables at the Manhattan Beach Earth Day on April 16th, and at the Cabrillo Marine Aquarium on April 23rd. On September 18th, EPN celebrated its 10th Anniversary! Being involved in the 350.org Festival in Manhattan Beach followed this celebration. EPN was instrumental in the City Council of Manhattan Beach’s adoption of the Bicycle Routes Program connecting beach cities in November of 2011. Bringing the year to an end, the EPN planned a public forum on Climate Crisis, which took place on January 21, 2012.

FESTIVAL OF MUSIC BENEFIT CONCERTS (1976)
The 33rd Annual Interfaith Benefit Concert was held on Sunday, November 6, at Trinity Lutheran Church of Long Beach. Musical choirs and a variety of artists delighted the audience by playing a range of music inspired by their diverse faith traditions. Performers for this concert included: Trinity Lutheran Church Choir, M.T.O. Sufi Association, Ayo Adewumi: African Master Yoruba Drummer, Temple Beth El Youth Choir, Myo’ On Taiko: SGI Buddhist Taiko Drummers and Shine: Redondo Beach Center for Spiritual Living Trio. Members of the interfaith community were also honored during this concert for their excellence in addressing matters of social concern. This year’s honorees included Rev. Kit Wilke, Jewish World Watch (JWW), Rev. Leon & Paula Wood & the Freedom School, and Rev. Mary Walton of Interval House. Thank you to all the volunteers, performers and members of the interfaith community who attended and made this a memorable event!

BLUE RIBBON SAGE COUNCIL (2005)
Rev. Dr. Mary Ellen Kilby & Rabbi Howard Laibson, Co-chairs

The Blue Ribbon Sage Council is comprised of past SCIC board members, presidents, and/or honorary members. The group meets three times a year to offer advice, feedback, and suggestions regarding SCIC programs, events, public relations, fund development, and the overall future direction of the SCIC. In 2012, the BRSC will continue to offer recommendations on the Council’s direction. Similarly, they will offer effective fund development initiatives to ensure that the execution of effective programs conducive to the growth of the SCIC and the greater interfaith community.

2011 Annual Assembly

Nearly 200 members of the South Coast community, representing 51 member faith communities, gathered together on March 24, 2011, for SCIC’s 58th Annual Assembly held at The Neighborhood ~ La Vecindad: A United Methodist Community in Long Beach. Dr. Moira Foxe, outgoing SCIC President, called the formal meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. followed by the opening prayer offered by Sherrel Johnson of CAIR. Special guests and SCIC staff members were introduced and those who completed their terms of office on the SCIC Board of Directors were acknowledged and thanked for their commitment and service to the council. Milia Islam-Majeed, SCIC Executive Director, highlighted the 2010 Annual Report while Rev. Josh Ebener, SCIC Treasurer, and Melody O’Keefe, SCIC Controller, presented the 2011 Annual Budget.

Amazing Grace Outreach Ministries, Islamic Society of Orange County, and New Star Family Center were recognized as new members of the SCIC and then the new SCIC Board members were confirmed, followed by the approval of the 2010 Annual Report, and 2011 Budget. The new board members in attendance were then introduced. Rabbi Howard Laibson of Congregation Shir Chadash installed the new SCIC President, Rev. Sandy Olewine, along with the new members of the SCIC Board of Directors. In addition, continuing board directors and staff renewed their commitment to serve.

Dr. Moira Foxe of Redondo Beach Center for Spiritual Living gave the offering appeal followed by the presentation of SCIC Spotlight Awards to Layman of the Year, Dr. Robert Kalayjian - First Congregational Church; Laywomen of the Year, Nancy Richardson - Wayfarers Chapel and Stephanie Bussi - Temple Israel; Faith Leader of the Year, Rev. Duane Moret - Holy Spirit Fellowship; Youth of the Year, Brenda Novela - SGI Buddhist Community; and Sage of the Year, Bobbie Smith - Bixby Knolls Christian Church. The evening concluded with a very special celebration of Patty Lance’s 20th Year Anniversary with the SCIC!

You must be free from prejudice and fanaticism, beholding no differences between the races and religions.
You must look to God, for He is the real Shepherd,
and all humanity are His sheep.
He loves them and loves them equally.
As this is true, should the sheep quarrel among themselves?
They should manifest gratitude and thankfulness to God,
and the best way to thank God is to love one another.
